Canadabiz website serves Internet users with the most accurate business information available online. Now we decided to expand and prepared a set of practical workshops dedicated to companies entering into e-market. Our first workshops will be organized in February. We would like to invite all Boston Events List users and friends to take part in this event. We will give you all the tools you need to set up an e-shop with a simple template.

Join us if you want to start selling your products online! For more information please go to our site: <https://www.canadabiz.net/>

Submission to this event is free. Prior registration is required.
