Got Problem Kids? Here's your Problem Student Problem-Solver Conference. You name the problems and this workshop delivers hundreds of immediate, problem-stopping answers. You will leave with innovative, more effective strategies for school failure, truancy, dropping out, work refusal, violence, delinquency, bad attitudes, depression and more. Online workshop, college credit and free clock hours also available.

Free sample intervention strategies, and free classroom management magazine available at our web site, <http://www.youthchg.com>, or via email (dwells@youthchg.com), or call toll-free to 1-800-545-5736. Financial aid scholarships available. Call for details.
